Hybrid program, held partially on campus and partially online

Mount Mary University's Summer Leadership Academy is a great opportunity for your female students to build their confidence, develop their professionalism, and strengthen their leadership skills.

Academy Details

The 2021 academy will be held June 21-24 and will be a hybrid program, held partially on campus and partially online. Students will participate in sessions on leadership development, college preparation and career exploration led by Milwaukee business leaders and Mount Mary faculty including:

- Importance of Sisterhood
- Financial Aid 101
- Finding the Right Fit in a College
- Racial Dynamics as a Leader
- Finding Your Authentic Self
- Networking with Young Professionals
- ... and much more!

The cost to attend the hybrid program (part on-campus, part online) is $100 and includes all meals, activity, and program costs. The cost is $50 for students who choose to participate entirely online. Financial need scholarships are available. Click here for program details.

Apply for the Academy by March 1

Learn more at an upcoming virtual info session

Interested students are encouraged to attend an upcoming Zoom Information Session to learn more about the Academy and hear from past participants and Women's Leadership
